Commercial Life Paralyzed by Destruction of Power Plant.

Minneapolis, Minn., January 6.—Minneapolis was plunged into darkness and the commercial life of the city was paralyzed to-day by an explosion of the "13,000 wire" leading into the power plant of the Minneapolis General Electric Company. Third Avenue, southeast, and Main Street. Eleven men employed in the building made their way to safety through the valley of the mill race after the explosion. The plant was wrecked and a tangled mass of wire, machinery and lumber was thrown in every direction by the force of the explosion. Fire followed and completed the demolition of the building.
